Re: Triboro Quilt Manufacturing Corporation v. Luvé LLC
Civil Action No.: 10-CV-03604-VB

Dear Judge Briccetti:

We represent the plaintiff, Triboro Quilt Manufacturing Corporation ("Triboro"). We write to follow up on our letter of August 11, 2011, regarding the Rule 26(f) meet and confer in this matter. The meet and confer was finally held on August 12, 2011. Mr. Schiller admitted his error in missing the scheduled August 11, 2011, meeting and agreed to prepare a joint letter updating the Court. Since Mr. Schiller has not done so, we are sending this letter.

Given the repeated delays caused by Defendant and her several counsel, Plaintiff still believes that sanctions are in order. Plaintiff requests, under 28 U.S.C. § 1927, attorneys fees and costs to recompense it for the preparation of and attendance at the July 15, 2011, Scheduling Conference; the August 11, 2011, Rule 26 (f) meet and confer that Defendant's counsel did not attend; and the August 12, 2011, Rule 26(f) meet and confer that was actually held.

We thank the Court for its consideration.

Sincerely,

Louis J. DeJuidice
